At a glance

A bespoke interactive workshop delivered to boys from African/Caribbean and mixed backgrounds. Getting the boys to engage in difficult issues through games, discussion and multimedia. The workshop, is purposed around debunking the myths surrounding black boys, raise aspirations and empower a holistic view towards society.

COSTS

The cost of the session includes the following

- 30-Minute Consultation
- · Customised content
- Workshop Facilitation

Please note for in-person sessions a tailored quote will be provided based on location and school requirements.

No.	In - person (prices start from)	Virtual
Up to 45	£225	£150
Up to 75	£300	£200
75 +	£375	£225

Black · Men · Teach

@blackmentch

www.blackmenteach.co.uk

In-person or Virtual

#BMTWorkshops #DearBlackBoys #EmpowerBlackBoys #EducationalResilience

AIMS

- Facilitate a healthy discourse on the myths surrounding black boys
- Raise the awareness of the shared experiences of black boys especially within the UK
- Inspire boys to seize their greatness despite feeling unseen at times as they may progress through the education system.

WHAT'S INVOLVED

All sessions are time at either 60 minutes (in-person) or 45 minutes (virtual) and includes the following components:

Ice-breaker Gre

Group discussion

Reflection tasks

Research Analysis

A&D

Certificate

REQUIREMENTS

Black/Mixed boys - majority of the participants The workshop is aimed at boys from black/mixed back.

The workshop is aimed at boys from black/mixed background, however it welcomes other boys from different ethnicities. We believe the message will be impactful for all but very poignant for our black/mixed boys.

Suitable venue

A large aspect of the workshop is group work where the boys will discuss issues that affect them personally as a group. A space that accommodates this will be highly beneficial

IT Provisions

3

4

The workshop is delivered via a PowerPoint presentation so access to a laptop, projector and sound is needed.

Multimedia review

Throughout the workshop we desire to capture moments of engagement to use for further promotional materials. This can be reviewed by the lead contact.